20.1.6 Animals "At Large"

a. It shall be unlawful for the owner or custodian of any animal, including livestock, to fail to keep the same from running at large in the County.

b. For the purpose of this Chapter, an animal shall not be deemed at large if the animal is on the premises or property of the animal owner or custodian or the property of another, so long as the property owner has given his or her permission and the animal cannot enter onto the public streets, sidewalks, alleys, other public areas or property not owned by the animal's owner or custodian.

c. Notwithstanding the above, "at large" means off the premises of the owner or custodian, whether by accident, design, or otherwise, unless:

- (1) The animal is on a leash, cord, chain, or similar restraint not more than fifteen (15) feet in length and is under the control of a person competent to restrain and control the animal, or
- (2) The animal is within a motor vehicle of its owner or custodian such that it cannot escape or have contact with a person outside the vehicle and such that said confinement does not endanger the animal's health or well-being, or
- (3) The animal is housed within a veterinary hospital, licensed kennel, pet shop, or animal shelter.

Formatted: Bullets and Numbering

- d. Any animal found to be "at large" within the County shall be deemed a public nuisance. Animals found at large may be apprehended and impounded, costs of which shall be paid by the animal's owner or custodian. Livestock or other large animals are to be in the custody of Mills County Sheriff or designee until disposition, if necessary.
- e. Notwithstanding any provision to the contrary, animals injured or killed on or along public streets or public right-of-ways shall be deemed at large. The Animal Control Officer may remove all such animals and at his or her discretion take such animal needing medical attention to a veterinarian or animal shelter. The owner or custodian of such animal shall be responsible and liable for the expenses of medical treatment and care as well as impoundment fees and any other penalties imposed by this Chapter.
- f. It is lawful for any person who finds an animal at large to seize and hold the animal. Any person so seizing and holding an animal may confine it within a fenced yard, house, garage or other structure owned by them, or by physically restraining such animal on a harness, collar or leash. The person seizing and holding the animal shall be responsible for the humane treatment of the animal while it is under that person's custody, and shall notify the County Animal Control Department within forty-eight (48) hours that the animal is in their custody. The provisions of this Chapter shall not infringe upon any right or duty created by Iowa Code Section 351.25 or Iowa Code Section 351.27.
- g. Any dog that has been impounded by the County shall have an identifying microchip inserted under its skin at its owner/custodian's expense prior to being released to the owner/custodian. The fee for this procedure shall be set in the Schedule of Fees adopted by resolution by the Board of Supervisors.

20.1.7 Owner/Custodian Duties

a. Humane Treatment

An owner or custodian shall provide adequate food, water, shelter, medical care and humane treatment for any animal in its care. It shall be unlawful under this Chapter for any person to beat, starve or otherwise abuse any animal.

Deleted: an owner or

Deleted: other

Comment [MPR1]: Couldn't we put these definitions up with the other definitions?

b. Sanitary Conditions

An owner or custodian shall keep all structures, pens, or yards wherein dogs or cats are confined, clean, devoid of vermin and free of odors arising from urine or feces.

c. Public Sanitation

No owner or custodian of a dog or other animal shall permit their animal to discharge feces upon any public or private property, other than the property of the owner or custodian of the animal. The owner or custodian shall not however, be considered in violation of this subsection provided he or she takes steps to immediately remove and clean up the feces discharged by the animal from the property. All feces removed as aforesaid shall be placed in an airtight container, and shall be stored in a sanitary manner in an appropriate refuse container until it is removed pursuant to refuse collection procedures, or otherwise disposed of in a sanitary manner. An owner or custodian may, as an alternative collect the feces and turn it under the surface of the owner's or custodian's soil in any manner that prevents odor or collection of vermin.

d. Abandonment

No owner or custodian may abandon any animal where it may become a public charge, nuisance or may suffer injury, hunger or exposure. If an animal is restrained or confined out of doors without food, water or proper care as defined in this Chapter, the County Animal Control or other authorized agent may enter upon any such property where the animal is restrained or confined and supply it with the necessary food, water and care so long as it remains there abandoned.

e. Rabies Vaccination

An owner or custodian of a dog required to be licensed under this Chapter shall vaccinate said dog for rabies and maintain a current vaccination tag on the dog's collar at all times. The rabies vaccination shall be administered in accordance with Iowa Code Chapter 351. A current certificate of vaccination for rabies signed by a licensed veterinarian administering the vaccine shall be required for all animals for which the vaccination is required.

f. Minimum Age

No dog may be licensed under this Chapter unless at least one of the registered owners or custodians of said dog is at least eighteen (18) years of age. All registered owners or custodians (or owners or custodians of an unlicensed dog) eighteen (18) years of age or older shall be personally, jointly and severally liable for compliance with the provisions of this Chapter.

g. Transfer of Ownership

A new owner or custodian shall within ten (10) days from the date of a change in ownership of dog make an application and pay the fee for a new license as provided in this Chapter.

h. Responsibility to Report Bite/Attack

This Chapter incorporates all regulations and duties imposed by Iowa Code Chapter 351. Included in the Iowa Code is the duty of the owner or custodian of any animal that has bitten or attacked a person or any person having any knowledge of such bite or attack to report this act to a local health or law enforcement official in accordance with the Mills County Public Health Animal Bite Policy. The owner or custodian must confine such animal in a manner directed by the Board of Health or the Animal Control Officer.

20.1.8 Irresponsible Animal Ownership

a. Any animal owner that has been convicted of or deemed responsible for, any violation of this Chapter by a court of competent jurisdiction on two (2) occasions in a twelve (12) month period may be designated an “irresponsible animal owner”.

Deleted: chapter

Deleted: occasions

b. If an animal owner is convicted of or deemed accountable for, a third violation of this Chapter by a court of competent jurisdiction in a twelve (12) month period, all animals may be confiscated and disposed of at the discretion of the Animal Control Supervisor, and no animal licenses shall be issued to anyone at the irresponsible animal owner’s residence for a period of thirty-six (36) months from the date of the third court order.

- c. No person designated as an irresponsible animal owner shall sell or otherwise transfer ownership of any animal to another person residing at the same address.
- d. Any ~~designation as an~~ irresponsible animal owner shall expire after ~~thirty-six (36) months provided the person so designated~~ shall ~~avoid any further violations of this Chapter during that time~~. Any further violations of this Chapter may result in immediate confiscation and disposal of any animals, at the discretion of the Animal Control Supervisor, ~~or as otherwise provided by law~~.

20.1.9 Procedure When Person Bitten by Animal

When a person is bitten by an animal, the procedures as set forth by the Mills County Public Health Bite Policy shall be followed.

20.1.10 Barking Dogs or Other Animals—Public Nuisance

- a. It shall be unlawful to keep or harbor any dog or other animal which, by frequent, regular, habitual, or continued barking, whining, yelping, howling or other loud noises, shall cause serious ~~or repeated~~ annoyance to the surrounding neighborhood. Such annoyance shall be considered a ~~“public nuisance”~~.
- b. The Animal Control Officer or the County Sheriff shall have the authority to use all reasonable means to abate such nuisance, including but not limited to, requiring that the owner or custodian make bona fide efforts to quiet the dog or impoundment of the animal, costs of which shall be paid by the animal’s owner or custodian.
- c. Any person who shall fail or refuse to abate such nuisance shall be deemed to have committed a separate violation of this Chapter for each twenty-four (24) hour period thereafter during which said nuisance continues and be subject to like penalties provided under this Chapter.

20.1.11 Police or Service Dogs

- a. It shall be unlawful under this Chapter for any person to taunt, tease, strike, injure or kill any dog used by a law enforcement officer, law enforcement department, ~~law enforcement agency~~ or other service dogs at any time.
- b. No person shall meddle with any such dog or any handler thereof in the performance of the functions of the law enforcement officer, law enforcement department or agency.

Deleted: or

- c. It shall not be a violation of this Chapter for a law enforcement officer or veterinarian to euthanize a police dog in an emergency situation when done to end undue suffering and pain for the police dog.

20.1.12 Dangerous/Vicious Animals Prohibited

- a. It shall be unlawful for any person to keep, harbor, purchase or sell a dangerous or vicious animal. An animal may be deemed dangerous/vicious by the Animal Control Officer based on the criteria specified below. For the purpose of this section, the term dangerous/vicious animal shall include but not be limited to any animal that either:
 - (1) Is listed in Section 20.1.5(n) (Dangerous Animals Defined); and/or
 - (2) Attacks and/or bites any person or other animal without provocation; and/or
 - (3) Kills or seriously injures any person; and/or
 - (4) Kills or seriously injures livestock or a domestic animal; and/or
 - (5) Approaches any person or other animal in an apparent attack posture or in a vicious or terrorizing manner whether or not the attack is consummated; and/or
 - (6) Is cited for running at large three (3) or more times in one year.
- b. The Animal Control Officer shall immediately seize such dangerous/vicious animal which shall be held for five (5) days. If, by the end of the impoundment period the person keeping, harboring, or sheltering said vicious animal, has not petitioned the court seeking return of the animal, the Animal Control Officer shall have cause for the euthanasia of the animal.
- c. Dogs used in security or police work shall not be classified as dangerous/vicious if a bite or bites occur while the dog is actually performing in such a capacity.
- d. Owner or Custodian Liability

If a dog or other animal, without provocation, attacks or injures any person who is peaceably conducting himself in a place where he may lawfully be, the owner or custodian of such dog or other animal is liable in damages to such person for the full amount of the injury sustained. If a dog or other animal, without provocation attacks or injures another animal, the owner

← - - - - Formatted: Bullets and Numbering

← - - - - Formatted: Bullets and Numbering

or custodian of such dog or animal is liable for damages caused to the injured animal by the attack.

20.1.13 Dangerous Animals Allowed

The prohibition contained in Section 20.1.12 shall not apply to the keeping of dangerous animals in the County under any of the following circumstances:

- a. Dangerous animals kept at state licensed veterinary hospitals, humane societies, licensed rehabilitator or animal control pounds for treatment or impoundment purposes.
- b. Dangerous animals kept by federal, state, county and municipal authorities and their designees or veterinarians pursuant to the enforcement of this or any animal control ordinance.
- c. Dangerous animals kept by governmental agencies, educational institutions, medical institutions or research laboratories for instructional or research purposes.
- d. Dangerous animals kept in publicly owned zoos.
- e. Dangerous animals kept for fur pelting businesses, subject to compliance with the Zoning Ordinance.
- f. Dangerous animals kept by individuals meeting USDA permit requirements.
- g. Dangerous animals commercially exhibited for ten (10) days or less.
- h. Animals being commercially transported through the County.

20.1.14 Impoundment

- a. It shall be the duty of the Mills County Supervisors to operate or contract with an animal shelter or organization, to supervise and control such a facility, to cause the shelter to be kept in a sanitary condition and free from offensive odors, to provide for adequate food, water, and shelter, to provide for the collection of animals, to handle the destruction or disposition of animals not reclaimed, and to assist in the enforcement and operation of this Chapter.
- b. Animals found at large and abandoned animals may be taken and impounded at the animal shelter and confined in a humane manner.

- c. Upon impounding an animal, the owner or custodian, if known, shall be given notice of impoundment within two (2) days and the owner or custodian shall then have five (5) days to reclaim the animal not counting the day of impoundment.
- d. A person claiming an impounded animal shall pay impoundment fees and boarding fees as established by the animal shelter.
- e. A person claiming an impounded animal shall provide proof of current rabies vaccination and county license if applicable.
- f. A person claiming an impounded animal shall also pay veterinary charges, if any, and such other costs actually incurred by the animal shelter in the care of the claimed animal.
- g. No animal need be kept for the period of notification or impoundment if a licensed veterinarian or an Animal Control Officer certifies that the animal is so diseased or injured that it is unduly suffering or cannot survive. In such cases, the animal may be humanely euthanized. The owner or custodian shall pay any fees associated with the euthanasia.
- h. Animals not reclaimed within the time limitations provided by the Chapter shall become the property of the County or animal shelter and shall be placed for adoption in a suitable home or humanely euthanized. No unclaimed animal shall be released for adoption to a suitable home without being sterilized, or without a written agreement from the adopter, guaranteeing that such animal will be sterilized.
- i. The refusal to reclaim any impounded animal shall not relieve the owner or custodian of the duty to pay the impoundment fees, boarding fees, veterinarian expenses, euthanization fees or any other costs incurred in the care of the animal. Any owner or custodian who refuses to pay such expenses shall be in violation of this Chapter. Said provision shall not apply if the owner relinquishes ownership of the animal to the County or its designee.
- j. Neither the County nor the animal shelter, nor their agents and officers enforcing the provisions of this Chapter, shall be liable for any accident or subsequent disease that may occur in connection with the impoundment of any animal pursuant to this Chapter.

20.1.15 Refusal of Admittance

In the event the Animal Control Officer or the County Sheriff, in proceeding to enter onto a property to carry out the provisions of this Chapter, shall be refused entry, a complaint may be made under oath to any magistrate of the County.

Said magistrate shall thereupon issue a warrant directed to the County Sheriff commanding him, between the hours of sunrise and sunset, accompanied by the Animal Control Officer to enter onto such property and to make such inspection as may be required to carry out the provisions of this Chapter, which order shall be executed by said County Sheriff with the assistance of the Animal Control Officer.

20.1.16 Miscellaneous Prohibited Acts

a. Abuse

It shall be unlawful under this Chapter for any person to beat, starve or otherwise abuse any animal.

b. Animals for Entertainment

It shall be unlawful under this Chapter for any person to use animals for entertainment purposes, including but not limited to, selling or giving away any animal as an incentive, prize or novelty; owning, breeding or training any animal (or other similar activity) for purposes of fighting between such animal with another animal or human being; intentionally killing or injuring any animal for sport, wagering or entertainment.

c. Poisoning Animals

It shall be unlawful under this Chapter for any person to knowingly poison or cause to be poisoned any domestic animal. Any drug used for euthanasia shall be used by or under the direction of a licensed veterinarian.

d. Killing Animals

It shall be unlawful under this Chapter for any person to knowingly kill any domestic animal except:

- (1) In an emergency situation to end the immediate suffering of the animal;
- (2) When the animal is not under the supervision of its owner or custodian and is in the process of injuring, wounding or killing another animal or a human being; or
- (3) Under the direction of a licensed veterinarian.

e. Horse Tripping

No person shall intentionally trip or cause to fall by its legs, or lasso or rope the leg of, any equine by any means for the purpose of entertainment, sport, practice, or contest.

f. Tail Whipping

No person shall intentionally trip any bovine by its tail, cause any bovine to fall by its tail, or drag any bovine by its tail for the purpose of entertainment, sport, practice, or contest.

20.1.17 License Required

It shall be unlawful for any person to keep or harbor any dog over the age of six (6) months, which has not been issued a dog license. The County Auditor or designee, shall issue no dog license unless the person has supplied a valid rabies vaccination certificate. Current rabies and county dog license tags must be visible at all times. The filing fee shall be set in the Schedule of Fees adopted by resolution by the Board of Supervisors.

20.1.18 Enforcement

- a. It shall be the duty of the Animal Control Officer and/or when the Animal Control Officer is unavailable the County Sheriff to enforce the provisions of this Chapter.
- b. Those representatives authorized to enforce this Chapter may issue a citation of county infraction with or without prior notice to any person who is alleged to have committed a county infraction.

20.1.19 Violations and Penalties

The penalty for violating the provisions of this Chapter shall be as set forth in Chapter 5 of the Mills County Code of Ordinances.

Section 2. REPEALER. All other ordinances, rules, regulations, or part thereof, in conflict with this ordinance are hereby repealed by this ordinance.

Section 3. SEVERABILITY. If any section, provision, or part of this ordinance shall be adjudged invalid or unconstitutional, such adjudication shall not affect the validity of the ordinance as a whole, or any provision thereof not adjudicated to be invalid or unconstitutional.

Section 4. EFFECTIVE DATE. This ordinance shall be in full force and effect from and after March 1, 2009.
